Cpl. J. Ruzsicska Honored By Aug 11-45 Schoolmates

There was a gathering of schoolmates last Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Odney Spillum on Skillman lane to honor Corporal Julia Ruzsicska, daughter of Mrs. Julia Ruzsicska, of the Woman's Army Corps, who is here on a furlough from Kirtland, Albuquerque, New Mexico, visiting her mother. Cpl. Ruzsicska formerly taught in the Mountain school and is one of Petaluma's popular girls who entered the service to help win the war.

The Spillum home was gay with summer flowers and tea was served the guests who enjoyed reminiscing of school days that have passed.

The guests included: Cpl. Ruzsicska; Marion Spillum, Hilda Eshleman, Virginia Donham Queenio, San Francisco, Odney Spillum, now teaching in the Sonora high school, Ann Weitzman, Daisy Carlsen, Elinor Mae Paulsen, Santa Rosa; Luccienne Brandt, Emma Ruzsicska, Mildred Ruzsicska.

Julia Ruzsicka 12/27/45

Cpl. Julia Ruzsicka of the Women's Army Corps received her honorable discharge from the service on the 11th of December, at Camp Beale, California. The local girl, former school teacher, enlisted in January, 1944, to help her country defeat fascism. She received her basic training at Fort Des Moines, Iowa, and was then assigned to Casper army air field, Casper, Wyoming, where she supervised the instruction of combat crew classes. In March of this year, she was sent to Kirtland Field, Albuquerque, New Mexico, where she continued the same type of work.

After V-J day she was made manager of the ground training office, supervising the work of several civilians and enlisted men, while at Kirtland Field, Cpl. Ruzsicka was the women's editor for the camp newspaper, "The Twenty-Niner." She is happy to be home again with her mother on their ranch east of Petaluma, where she is enjoying the holiday season with her family and friends.
